Tempo is a group of diverse accomplished women in business, public service, education and the arts, who have demonstrated excellence and community leadership. Tempo is a place to learn. The chapter holds monthly luncheon meetings, where speakers present diverse topics with both professional and personal development themes. Tempo is a respite and relationship builder. Busy-pressured women can expand and enrich their community relationships with other like-minded women. Tempo is what you need to help support, mentor and empower you and women in your community.
